

Survival kit - Krakow.

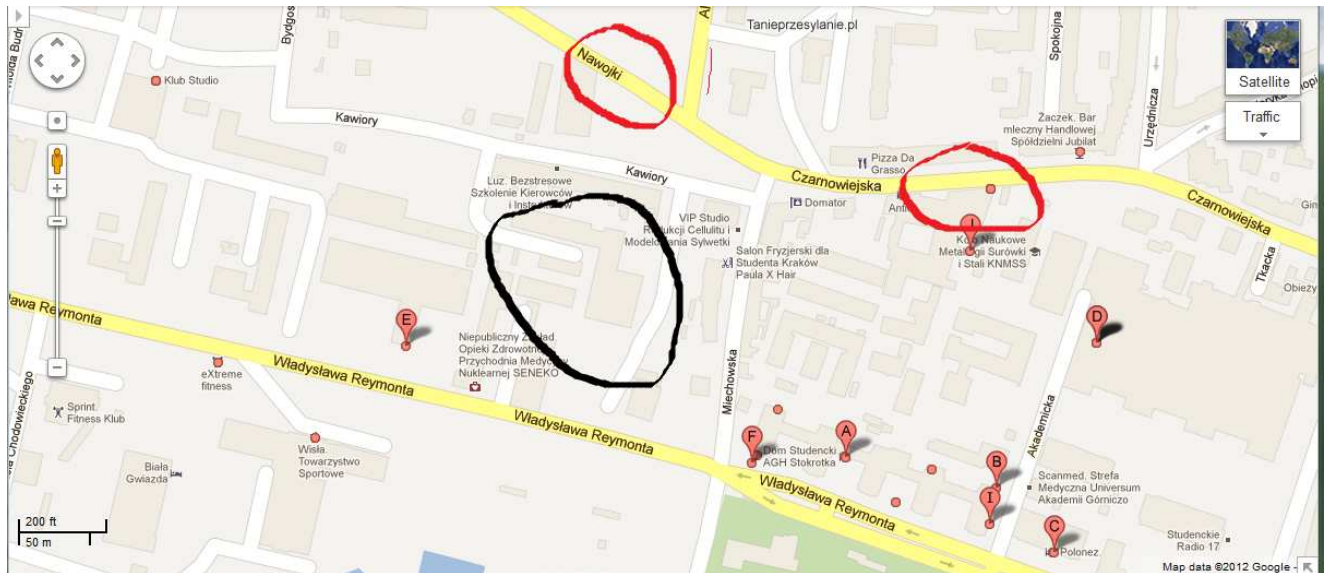

The best way from the Krakow airport - Balice is the public transport. There are two possibilities: a train (goes all the way to the City Centre) and two buses. The latter is especially convenient for those who will stay near the AGH - UST campus. Both buses stops next to the venue - Department of Physics. Below I put the web links where you can find all the details:

<http://www.krakowairport.pl/en/3/176/35/en> (for the train)

<http://www.krakowairport.pl/en/61/176/36/en> (for the buses)

The buses you want to take are 208 or 292. The stop next to the department is called "Kawiory" (bus 208) or "AGH" (bus 292)

There is also Taxi service from the airport - the price should be between 12 - 20 Euros depending on the company (it is possible to pay with your credit/debit card).

In order to get your bearings just go to google and type "Krakow, AGH" this will give you the picture above. The black circle is the Department of Physics (Reymonta 19), red circles indicate bus stops: starting from the left "Kawiory" and "AGH"

Anyway – in case of emergency I will be reachable at this number: 0048126172988 on Wed afternoon.

Informal dinner on Wednesday – “Dom Polonii” Rynek Główny 14, we start around 7.30.
