

Contribution ID: 90

Type: not specified

Combining searches of Z' and W' bosons

Gauge invariance imposes model-independent correlations in the couplings and masses of heavy neutral and charged vector bosons. We show how to take advantage of these correlations in combined analyses of dilepton and lepton-plus-missing-energy signals at the LHC.

Primary author: MANUEL PEREZ-VICTORIA, Manuel (University of Granada)

Co-authors: Mr LIZANA, Javier M. (University of Granada); Dr DE BLAS, Jorge (Notre Dame University)

Presenter: MANUEL PEREZ-VICTORIA, Manuel (University of Granada)