

Potential post LS1 strategy and performance – Mike Lamont

A summary of the possibilities and potential performance post LS1 is presented. A synthesis of the pros and cons of the various options is given. With these in a mind a sketch of the re-commissioning strategy is made as input for discussion. An overview of limitations solved, limitations known, and limitations in question is presented. Issues identified at the workshop will be briefly enumerated.