Relations with the Host States

- Our Service
- Swiss & French documents
- CERN documents
- Swiss work permits
- Bilateral Agreements
1. Our Service

■ Who are we?
  • Georges Stassinakis
  • Friedemann Eder
  • Natasha Lavy

■ Where are we?
  • 60/3-016
  • +41 22 767 28 48
  • www.cern.ch/relations/
  • relations.secretariat@cern.ch

■ What do we do?
  • Swiss & French Authorities
  • CERN Services
  • Members of personnel
  • etc.
2. Swiss & French documents

- Switzerland (DFAE)
  - Carte de légitimation
    - CERN salary
    - 100% during 12 month
  - Attestation de fonctions
    - no CERN salary
    - >50% during 6 month

- France (MAE)
  - Carte spéciale
    - 100% during 6 month
    - French residents
  - Attestation de fonctions
    - 100% during 6 month
    - Swiss residents
3. CERN documents

- CERN Attestation
  - no CERN salary
  - ≤50% during 6 month

- CERN Card
  - Site access
4. Swiss work permits

- Activity which is normally gainful
  - Even if unpaid

- B-Permit for Swiss residents
  - Priority for Swiss and integrated aliens
  - Priority for EU and EFTA citizens
  - Controls on wages and working conditions

- G-Permit for French residents
  - Cross-border commuters

- Bilateral Agreements: 1 June 2002
  - EU-Switzerland
  - EFTA States-Switzerland
5a. Bil.Agr. - Geography

- EU
- Negotiating for accession from March 1998
- Negotiating for accession from February 2000
- EEA

* Special status: Turkey
5b. Bil.Agr. - Transitional period

- Entry into force of Bilateral Agreement
  - Mutual improvement of working and residence conditions
  - Quotas continue

- Priority for Swiss nationals to be abolished

- Switzerland to decide on continuation of Agreement (optional referendum)

- Free movement of persons
  - General safeguard clause for both parties

- Experimental introduction of free movement of persons
  - Unilateral safeguard clause in case of excessive immigration
  - Abolition of quotas
Administrative difficulties?

Cutting red tape saves everyone time and money