

This talk will present a summary of the control system components and solutions under the responsibility of the AB-CO group. In order to optimize the overall efficiency of the Accelerator complex, special emphasis will be given on the spare policy and mean time to repair for front-ends, timing, back-ends, software and databases, along with a description of dependencies towards external entities. A proposal for the first-line support will also be presented.