

The plans and needs of the experimental areas in 2008 and beyond

In this presentation we outline the foreseen activities in all the non-LHC experimental areas during the year 2008. The implications on the accelerator complex are analyzed, including the requirements on instantaneous and integrated intensities, as well as the implications in terms of radiation and required modifications during the shutdown.

Finally a short outlook for the coming years will be presented.

Keywords: Experimental area, Intensities, Radiation, North Area, East Area, CNGS, Isolde, Rex, nTOF, MERIT, MTE