

Contribution ID: 276

Type: Oral presentation

Quarkonia: a theoretical framework

Thursday, 1 May 2014 10:00 (30 minutes)

I discuss heavy quarkonium spectroscopy from the perspective of modern effective field theories for non-relativistic particles. These provide a framework suitable to describe in a systematic fashion all the relevant observables (cross-sections, widths, transitions, masses, ...). They may be also extended to describe quarkonia in a medium.

Primary author: VAIRO, Antonio (Institut fuer Theoretische Physik-Ruprecht-Karls-Universitaet H)

Presenter: VAIRO, Antonio (Institut fuer Theoretische Physik-Ruprecht-Karls-Universitaet H)

Session Classification: WG5: Heavy Flavours

Track Classification: WG5: Heavy Flavours