

Instructions for proceedings

The FPCP2014 proceedings will be published in digital format by eCONF proceedings. Each author should submit his/her contribution to ArXiv. There is no page limit and a template is provided in the link: http://www.slac.stanford.edu/econf/editors/eprint-template/instructions.html#Eprint_Templates

Proceedings are to be sent to fpcp2014@cppm.in2p3.fr by July 31st 2014, and submitted to hep-ex (if experimental) or to hep-ph (if theory or phenomenology) with the comment:

"Presented at the 2014 Flavor Physics and CP Violation (FPCP-2014), Marseille, France, May 26-30 2014, n pages, m figures."
