

Contribution ID: 292

Type: Presentation

Inferences about Dark Matter in the Smallest Galaxies

Thursday 26 June 2014 16:30 (20 minutes)

The Local Group's dwarf galaxies represent the lower limit of galaxy formation. Inferences about the amount and spatial distribution of dark matter within these objects has can provide tests of cosmological models and predictions for indirect detection experiments. I will summarize current observational constraints and discuss prospects for improvement.

Primary author: Prof. WALKER, Matthew (CMU)

Presenter: Prof. WALKER, Matthew (CMU)

Session Classification: Dark Matter: Cosmological Aspects

Track Classification: Dark Matter: Cosmological Aspects