

Curriculum Vitae

Manfred Jeitler

Born: 8 April 1959, Vienna, Austria.

1965-1976: attending school in Vienna.

1976-1982: studying English and Russian at the Interpreters' Institute of the University of Vienna and at the Maurice Thorez Language Institute in Moscow (graduation in 1982).

1981-1988: studying physics at the University of Vienna (graduation in 1988).

1983-1984: representative of Voest-Alpine corporation in Moscow.

1988-1992: Ph.D. thesis on muon-catalyzed fusion (work carried out at the Institute of Medium Energy Physics and at the Paul-Scherrer Institute (PSI), Villigen, Switzerland).

1993-1994: working on a feasibility study for the "Austron" spallation neutron source (Vienna and Rutherford Appleton Laboratory, England).

since 1994: working for Institute of High Energy Physics (HEPHY, Vienna) of the Austrian Academy of Sciences (CP-violation experiment NA48 and LHC-experiment CMS) at CERN (Geneva).

since 2007: lecturer at Technical University of Vienna