Computer registration

In order to have access to the wireless internet connection for your laptop, you need to register by following the laptop registration instructions . Due to the large number of participants, we recommend that you register your laptop in advance, before your actual arrival to CERN. Above all, please do this before the weekend if you require internet access during the weekend. For this registration process:

<http://cern.ch/registerVisitorComputer> - Follow the link to the network connection request form . - Click on the entry indicating you are a visitor, and then on the entry specifying you do NOT have an account (even if you do have one as this form is more straightforward), then on "Continue". - In the external visitor registration form, introduce your data, and visit information. - Do not forget to indicate the hardware address and card type (usually wireless). Do not forget to click on "Add". - As contact person, please use: Name: GIANOLIO, First name: ELENA, Cern department: PH, Cern group: AGS, then click on SEND.

Fixed terminal computer access: Unfortunately, due to computer security protocols at CERN, it will not be possible to provide an account to log in using the fixed computer terminals on site. The only way to access the internet is by using your own laptops, see above.

- Assistance: For any computer problem, please contact Elena Gianolio (Bldg. 4-2.014, email: Elena.Gianolio@cern.ch, tel. 74751 or 160579).

If you register your laptop before your arrival, but once at CERN your browser asks you to fill the registration page again, please repeat the process as it may be possible that the mac address of your computer was incorrectly entered. Should the problem persist, do not hesitate to contact Elena.
