

Contribution ID: 75

Type: not specified

Bottom-up holographic approach to QCD

Friday 12 September 2014 10:00 (30 minutes)

The phenomenological five-dimensional holographic models represent an interesting and unexpectedly fruitful theoretical laboratory for studying the strongly coupled QCD.

We present a short review of these models and of various results concerning the hadron spectrum, chiral symmetry breaking and the deconfinement temperature.

Author: AFONIN, Sergey (Saint Petersburg State University)

Presenter: AFONIN, Sergey (Saint Petersburg State University)

Session Classification: Plenary 9

Track Classification: Plenary talks