

Far-from-equilibrium anisotropic collective flow

Friday 27 May 2011 18:30 (20 minutes)

Novel analytical results for the anisotropic collective flow of massive particles with a small interaction cross-section are presented. In particular, we show that, even when particles rescatter at most once, a sizable elliptic flow v_2 is generated, with mass ordering of the various particle species.

Primary author: Prof. BORGHINI, Nicolas (University of Bielefeld)

Co-author: Dr GOMBEAUD, Clément (University of Bielefeld)

Presenters: Dr GOMBEAUD, Clément (University of Bielefeld); Prof. BORGHINI, Nicolas (University of Bielefeld)

Session Classification: Global and collective dynamics

Track Classification: Global and collective dynamics