

6.3 Challenges of working with industry (ESA)

Wednesday, 21 May 2014 09:30 (15 minutes)

Development of products from launchers to spacecraft and sub-systems is usually done by industry according to well-defined contractual arrangements. This can be difficult to complete for more speculative research contracts. We describe some particular challenges of this relationship.

Presenter: LUMB, David (ESA)

Session Classification: Session 6