

Dry runs and machine check-out strategy

M.Albert, R.Giachino
CERN, Gevena Switzerland

Abstract

The paper describes the structure, organisation and strategies which will be applied to prepare the LHC for beam commissioning in early 2015 after its first long shutdown. Equipment dry runs, sector test preparation and final machine checkout, which constitute the ingredients for a smooth start of beam commissioning, will be explained.