

Other non-solved NC across the LHC ring and potential impact on performances

V. Baglin

During Run 1, several non conformities across the ring with impact on machine performances were identified and planned to be solved during the long shutdown 1. During this long shutdown, new non conformities were also produced and / or identified. In this talk, some of these non conformities are presented and discussed together with their impact on machine operation, technical stops and LS2.