Hotels

- In Rome it is always high season...
- Not easy to prebook and keep rooms for long periods
- I will try to ask for some discount for early bookers but only ~ mid September
  - From booking.com current rates in nearby hotels in that period are
    - H10 ~ 140 euro/night
    - Pulitzer ~ 100 euro/night
    - Saint Paul ~90 euro/night
    - American Palace (Metro B terminus Laurentina) ~80 euro/night
  - But you may prefer to pick up yourself a more central hotel or B&B (along metro B line possibly)
