

Council seen by a Young Scientist

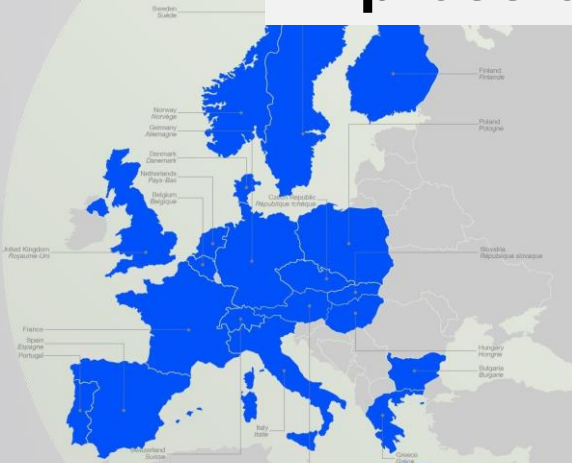

Laura Grob (PhD Student)

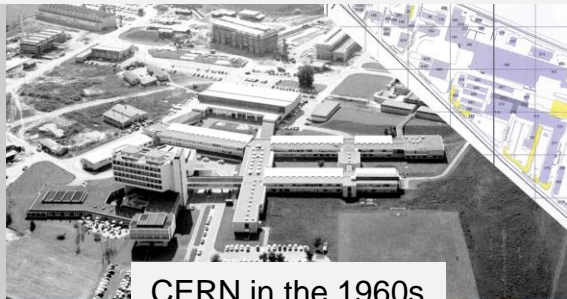

19. September 2014

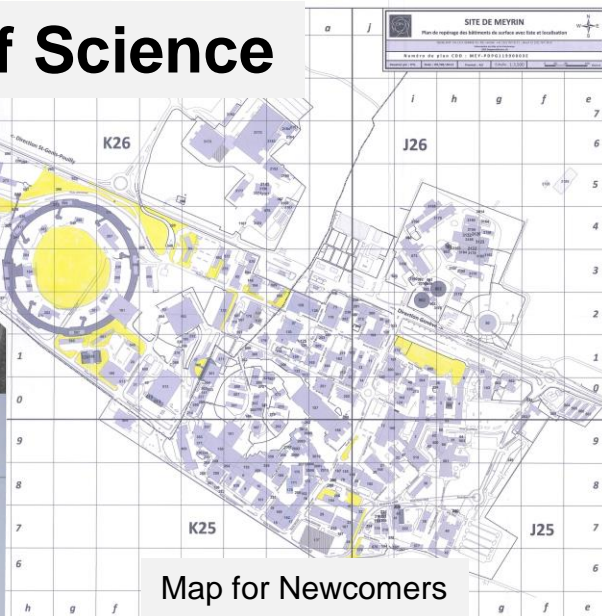

Impressions from the City of Science

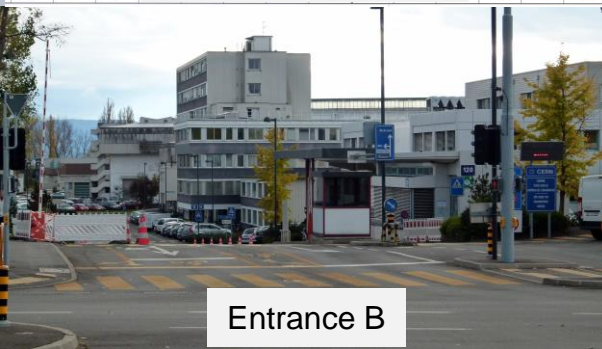

The 21 Member States

CERN in the 1960s

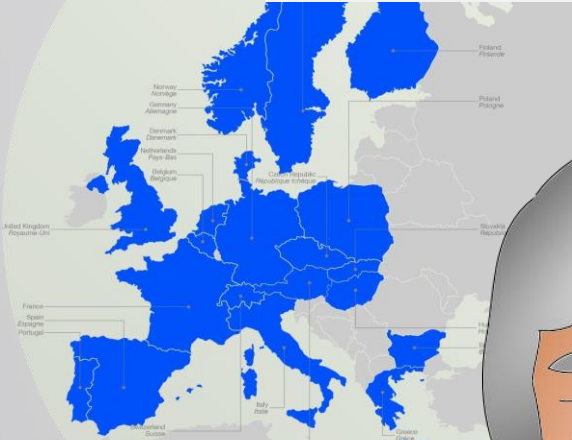

Map for Newcomers

Entrance B

Impressions from the City of Science

The 21 Member States

DG says:
Spirit of real hands-on experience.

Entrance B

Impressions from the Infrastructure

CERN Reception

Entrance B, 1950s

My office

CMS & ATLAS and the Hostel

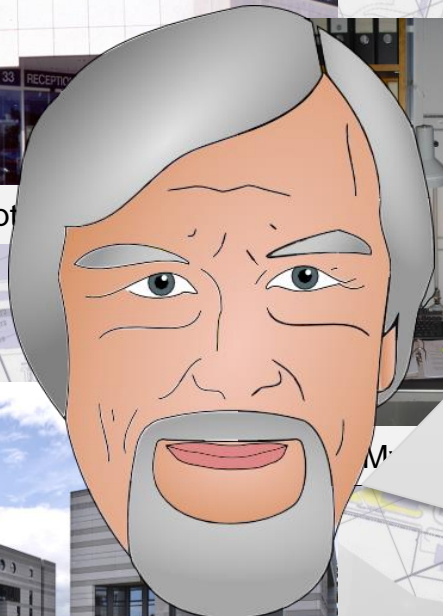

My working place at ISOLDE

Impressions from the Infrastructure

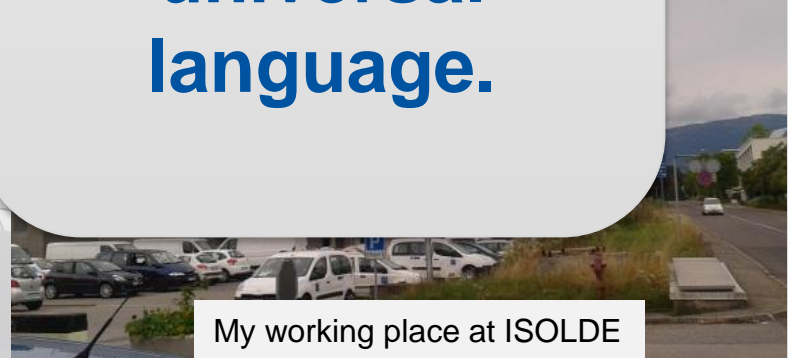

CERN Reception

DG says: Science is a universal language.

CMS & ATLAS and the Hostel

My working place at ISOLDE

Impressions from the Council

The recent CERN Council

First Council Session

Impressions from the Council

Council
President says:
Not a dish-
washing job.

First Council Session

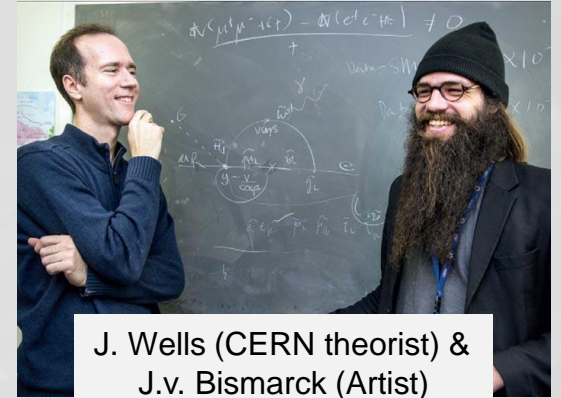

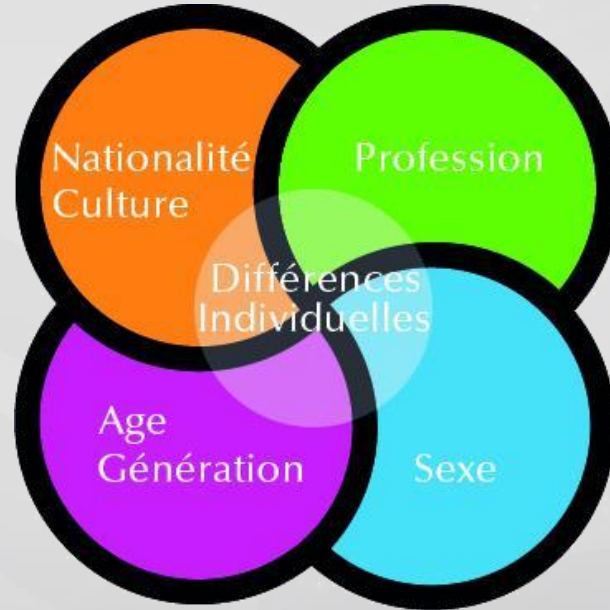

Impressions of CERN's Diversity

T. Nakada,
Scientific Policy Committee

P. Wells,
project leader at ATLAS

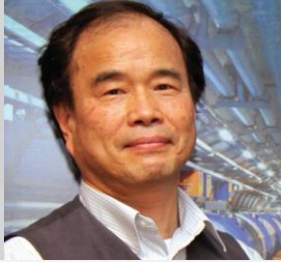

J. Wells (CERN theorist) &
J.v. Bismarck (Artist)

A.-S. Catherin,
Head of HR department

Impressions of CERN's Diversity

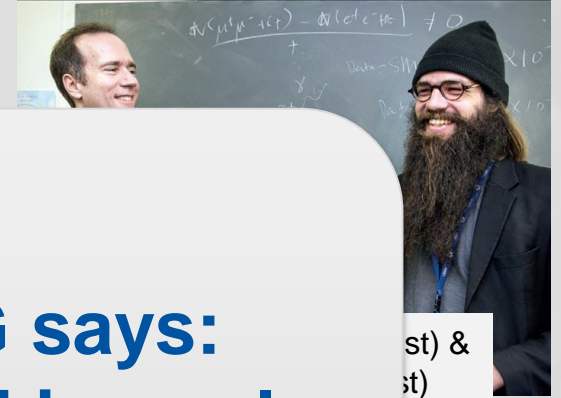

T. Nakada,
Scientific Policy Committee

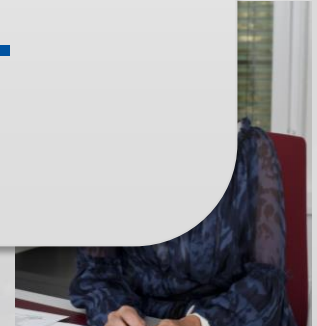

P. Wells,
project leader at ATLAS

DG says:
CERN is a role model.

(st) &
(st)

A.-S. Cathrin,
Head of HR department

Impressions from CERN's monuments

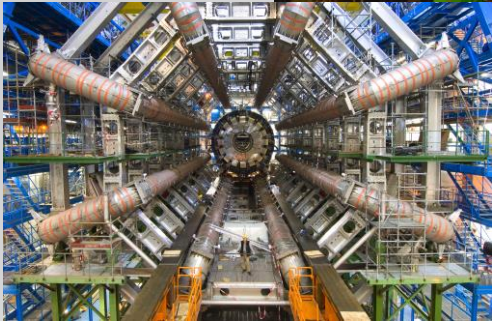

Laura Grob, PhD at

Impressions from CERN's monuments

DG says:
We reached a milestone in understanding
our nature.

Laura Grob, PhD at

Impressions of CERN's education activities

Santa in the tunnel

Researchers' night
at CMS and TOTEM

Training for Teachers

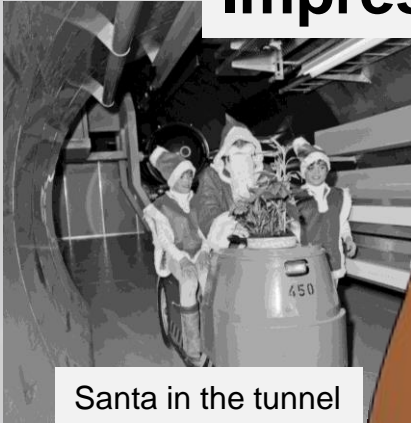

Apprentice Center

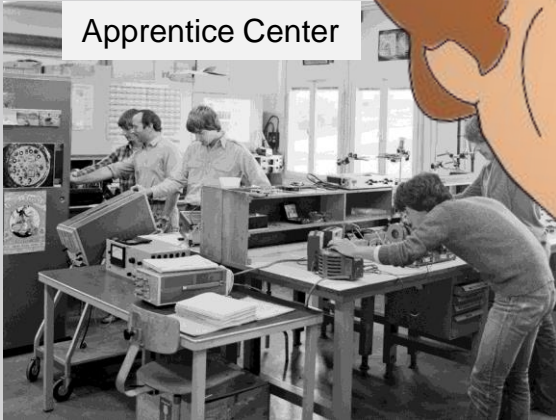

Beamline for Schools

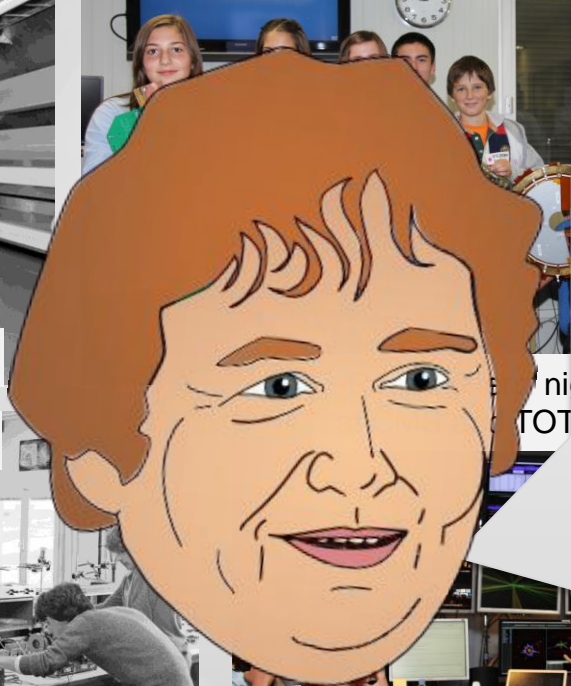

Impressions of CERN's education activities

Santa in the tunnel

Apprentice Center

Council
President says:
CERN is a true
treasure.

Impressions of CERN's Child Care

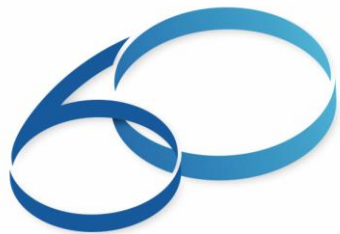

Impressions of CERN's Child Care

DG says:
Everyone is pulling in the same direction.

Congratulations

YEARS/ANS CERN

60 years of Science for Peace