

Institution as publisher session: University-based open access publishing in Europe: challenges and opportunities in the Humanities

Friday 19 June 2015 10:00 (30 minutes)

This talk briefly examines important issues in open access publishing in the Humanities in Europe and focuses on an overview of university-led publishing initiatives in the Humanities, that is, initiatives led by scholars, departments, libraries and newly-formed university presses. It examines current trends, major challenges faced, and opportunities for future work in view of rendering this work more impactful in the university environment.

Presenter: Mrs TSOUKALA, Victoria

Session Classification: Plenary 5