Meyrin-Genève, le 17 December, 1964

I am happy to inform you that the proposal of a study of short-lived activities by means of an isotope separator on-line with the CERN synchro-cyclotron was discussed in the Nuclear Physics Research Committee meeting on 2 December, 1964, and that this Committee expressed its positive interest in the project. Following its recommendations, the groups proposing the study are herewith invited to carry out the project as visiting teams at CERN. CERN is willing to make an effort to provide the necessary laboratory space, including an experimental hall for the equipment. Yours sincerely,

Vietr F. Weischarf
