Tuesday 24 March 2015 11:15 (25 minutes)

After more than ten years of operations the game is over for Exchange 2003 at DESY. Now Zimbra has been set into production and data from both Exchange 2003 and the UNIX mail service is being migrated and consolidated gradually. The architecture of the Zimbra mail service, the migration procedures and some experiences will be presented. Finally we will look at some integration aspects of Zimbra in the existing DESY landscape.
