

COLLABORATION AGREEMENT (hereinafter referred to as the “Agreement”) between the NA61/SHINE Collaboration (hereinafter referred to as “NA61/SHINE”), an international collaboration performing measurements with the NA61/SHINE detector at the CERN SPS, represented by its spokesperson

and

the ... (hereinafter referred to as the ... group), represented by ...,

NA61/SHINE and the ... group are hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Parties" or individually as "Party".

TAKING INTO ACCOUNT THE FOLLOWING CONSIDERATIONS:

- ... ,
- ... ,
- ... ,
- NA61/SHINE operates under the terms of the “Memorandum of Understanding for Collaboration in the NA61 / SHINE experiment for study of Hadron Production in Hadron-Nucleus and Nucleus-Nucleus Collisions at the CERN SPS” dated 24 October 2008 between CERN and the NA61/SHINE Participating Institutions mentioned (hereinafter referred to as the “MoU”);

THE PARTIES HAVE AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

Article 1 – Scope of the Agreement

In order to help the ... group in the preparation and running of its program, NA61/SHINE will grant to the participants of the ... group limited membership in NA61/SHINE. This means:

- access to the NA61/SHINE EDMS, Indico and Twiki resources,
- access to the NA61/SHINE software and data,
- possibility to participate in the NA61/SHINE meetings,
- possibility to participate in the NA61/SHINE data taking.

The corresponding support by NA61/SHINE experts will be possible, if compatible, with their work and obligations within NA61/SHINE.

The ... group members intend to take shifts during the NA61/SHINE data taking following rules for the NA61/SHINE participating institutions. Moreover, the ... group intends to report the status of its studies at the NA61/SHINE Collaboration meetings.

Information and results gained by the ... group due to the limited membership in NA61/SHINE are the property of NA61/SHINE and are subject to restrictions for external presentations defined by the NA61/SHINE publication policies.

Article 2 – Duration of the Agreement

This Agreement shall cover a period of one year, from ... until and including

Article 3 – Amendments, Variations or Additions

Any modification to the terms and conditions of this Agreement can be made only by means of a written agreement signed by authorized representatives of the Parties.

Article 4 - Suspension and Termination of the Agreement

Suspension and termination, procedures for suspension and termination of this Agreement may be amended or supplemented only by means of a written agreement signed by authorized representatives of the Parties.

Article 5 – Names and logos

Neither Party shall use the names and logos of the other Party without its prior written consent, if not directly related to the performance of obligations under this Agreement

Prepared in Geneva in the English language.

For the NA61/SHINE Collaboration

...

NA61/SHINE spokesperson

(date)

For the ... group

...

(date)