

Architecture of GFISH WS

guarantee the security, SSL-based. The two GFISH WS server and client sends requests to third-party resource on behalf of the user. When retrieved from MyProxy, the server and client do mutual authentication. After successful authentication, then server creates a third-party server in behalf of the user.

Figure