

The case of a strongly interacting electroweak symmetry breaking sector at the LHC

Tuesday 8 September 2015 09:45 (30 minutes)

The current data concerning the Higgs discovered at the LHC are compatible with having a strongly interacting electroweak symmetry breaking dynamics for the Higgs and the would-be Goldstone bosons. In this work we review this possibility and the consequences for LHC II.

Primary author: DOBADO, Antonio (Universidad Complutense (ES))

Presenter: DOBADO, Antonio (Universidad Complutense (ES))

Session Classification: Session 1