

Muskhelishvili

scen !

Paris, le 5 avril 2005

The undersigned National Library directors wish to support a common initiative of the European leaders to further a widespread and co-ordinated programme for the digitization of works pertaining to the heritage of our continent.

Such an enterprise implies the close concordance of national aims at the European Union level in order to select the works. The support of the Community authorities will be called for in order to develop a vigorous research programme on the technical solutions which will advance this project.

TOTO JE PROHLÁŠENÍ