

So you want to write for the public: An author's perspective

Tuesday 28 July 2009 16:00 (20 minutes)

Writing for a popular audience requires a very different approach than for our scientific colleagues. In this talk, an author of two popular HEP books, one popular magazine article and a recurring article in Fermilab Today shares some advice and experience.

Author: Dr LINCOLN, Don (Fermilab)

Presenter: Dr LINCOLN, Don (Fermilab)

Session Classification: Education and Outreach in HEP

Track Classification: Education and Outreach in HEP