

FCNC, LFV, and other rare decays at CDF.

The CDFII detector at the Fermilab Tevatron has now collected more than 5 fb⁻¹ of data, and is the ideal place to search for rare and forbidden heavy flavor decays. Here we report recent results for rare decays of B and D hadrons with a lepton pair in the final state.

Author: CDF COLLABORATION, The (Various)

Presenter: CDF COLLABORATION, The (Various)

Track Classification: Heavy Flavor Physics [bottom, charm, tau]