

Five minutes at desk with TB

- Encyclopaedia Universalis
 - Established in 1968 by Club Français du Livre and Encyclopaedia Britannica
 - It relies on a network of 4,000 scientists, among them some Nobel Prize laureates
 - First published in 1974. 5th ed. (28 vols.) published in 2002. We have the 1st ed.
 - The « Corpus » : 20 volumes on all subjects (23 in 2002)
 - The « Thesaurus-Index » : 3 volumes (4 vols in 2002 ed.). If the topic is small, it will be covered on the Thesaurus-Index. If it is large, the Thesaurus refers to an article /articles in the Corpus

Five minutes at desk with TB

- Encyclopaedia Universalis online
 - 52 million words, 30k articles and 16k « médias », more than 350k hypertext links
 - We access “Le Portail de la connaissance” (site for institutional access)
 - “basic search” and “advanced search” are available. Natural language searching is supported.
 - No “personal shelf”. Limited customization.
 - “Recherche documentaire de A à Z”