Contribution ID: 11   Type: not specified

Technologies to Implement High Availability Grid Services

Friday 16 June 2006 14:20 (30 minutes)

A review of technologies for High Availability of Grid Services and how they can be implemented. This will include hardware hardening, high availability linux and DNS Load Balancing.

Presenter: BELL, Tim (CERN/IT/FIO)

Session Classification: Building High Availability / High Reliability Services