Supersymmetry. Ryoji Ikeda (JP), 2015. CERN Artist in Residency (COLLIDE Award)
Arts@CERN was born in 2011

CERN’s cultural policy Great Arts for Great Science

Leading arts and science program

20 artists per year

New expert knowledge in the arts

Fundamental aspect: scientists and CERN community involvement in artistic research

Julie Hoffner
ARTS - AT - CERN

COLLIDE Residency Award
- Flagship program: research on artistic practice by encountering the multi-world of particle physics
- Residency for up to 3 months at CERN
- COLLIDE International Award, COLLIDE Geneva, COLLIDE Pro Helvetia

ACCELERATE Residency Award
- Country specific research award
- Two countries every year
- One-month residency

GUEST ARTISTS
- For established artists and cultural researchers
- Invitation to CERN for a short exploratory visit to learn about what CERN offers to arts and creativity
- Three- five visits per year

Julie Haffner
International collaborations and funders

• Network of international partnerships to reach other audiences and enrich Arts@CERN’s mission.

• Arts@CERN partners are governmental and cultural institutions interested in working in collaboration with CERN.

• Annual budget: CHF 210,000, CHF 125,000 fundraised by the Arts@CERN team.
“Great Arts for Great Science”

CONTACT US

Monica.bello@cern.ch
Head of Arts@CERN

Julian.calò@cern.ch
Coordinator of Arts@CERN

FOLLOW US:
@artsartcern
http://arts.cern