- Web site should contain answers to most of your questions – please use it. If something is missing, please ask us.
- We start on time. Use the upper entrances on the sides to enter late.
- No food or drink in the lecture hall or labs.
- Lab groups are in your folder and posted.
- Lab manual: in your folder and on the web under “Materials”.
- Ask us if you need AC power adapters/ cords.
At the back of the main Lab room there is a Swiss power bar
- Wireless: Everywhere with no need for any passwords, etc.
- Breakfast:
San Martin residents: in the small dining room where you registered.
Reisfeld residents: at Charlie’s Place cafeteria: show them your badge.
- Breaks and lunch: here
- Dinner: on your own. Please arrange amongst yourselves to go together.
Consult our list on the web site
- Grocery, etc. store: outside the gate across from the Faculty of Agriculture.

Culture...

- Visitors Center: out the door and to the right. Visit during lunch or a break
- Wednesday evening lecture, before dinner, on “scientific” archeology
- ATLAS detector construction lab: ask us if you want to visit
- Friday PM : free time!
 - You can go to Tel-Aviv, by minibuses (though central bus station is not a very nice place), or share a taxi.
 - Nice place for dinner: Rothschild Boulevard or Tel-Aviv harbour
 - Our advice: share a taxi to come back to Rehovot (180-200 NIS or so)
- Saturday’s tour: Jerusalem only
 - We’d like to start on time (i.e. meet a few minutes before 8am)
 - First thing we’ll do when arriving in Jerusalem: breakfast
 - If you get lost : stay where you are and call us
 - Holy places: we have to respect everybody’s beliefs
