

Contribution ID : 160

Type : not specified

Non-metric inflation

Wednesday, 9 September 2015 12:30 (20)

A generalisation of the Weyl geometry, where the non-metricity and torsion are given by a single vector field, is presented.

Taking into account the leading (quadratic) curvature correction in this geometry results in a one-parameter extension of the Starobinsky inflation, the so-called alpha-attractor model.

Summary

Presenter(s) : KOIVISTO, Tomi (Nordita, Sweden)

Session Classification : Inflation and phase transitions