

UK B-Factory Symposium

Wednesday 1 April 2009 - Wednesday 1 April 2009

Department of Physics

Scientific Programme

This meeting will review the reasons for building the B-factories, as well as some of the many expected and unexpected results from BaBar. Theoretical implications of the currently B-Factories will also be discussed, as well as the outlook of heavy flavour physics for the next decade.