

On the metric theory of gravity

Monday 20 June 2016 14:00 (1 hour)

I plan to use the introduction to review some past work on emergent symmetries. But then in the spirit of the workshop I will describe some ongoing work on a pathway to describe why general relativity appears as a metric theory, without initially making that assumption.

Presenter: DONOGHUE, John (Unknown)