

This is an example of submitted material

You can just submit as a normal talk....

The session convenors will look what is the key information and how it fits in the session