

Duo Pasculli

Silke Augustinski (born in 1987 in Fulda) studied at the Music Academy in Würzburg with Prof. Jochen Müller-Brincken (oboe) and Prof. Theodor Nüßlein (viola), completing her “Master of Music in Performance” in July 2015 with the qualification “very good”. She won a prize at the international competition of woodwind instruments in St. Petersburg (2011) and also a grant from the Richard Wagner Association. Silke has attended master courses with Ingo Goritzki, Albrecht Mayer and Stefan Schilli and is active in several orchestras and as a soloist.

Anna-Maria Frankenberger (born in 1988 in Coburg) studied harp with Prof. Gisèle Herbet at the Music Academy in Würzburg, where she obtained her diploma in 2012. Anna-Maria has attended master courses with Frédérique Cambreling, Nathalie Chatelain, Emmanuel Ceysson, Godelieve Schrama and Benoît Wery and plays in several orchestras.

Duo Pasculli is since 2014 receiving a grant from the association “Live Music Now” (Franken), founded by Lord Yehudi Menuhin.
