Welcome in Orsay!

- I hope all of you had a safe trip to Paris... and Orsay
- Your registration package should contain:
  - Information about Paris
  - A registration receipt
  - A badge: please wear it when you are at LAL
  - Lunch tickets
  - Let us know if something is missing
- If you are not registered, you are welcome too!
  - please contact Valérie Brouillard
  - Indico registration has been reopen: payment through it!

Rooms

- No parallel sessions, except Tuesday afternoon
- Due to the 2015 events, no longer any unrestricted access to the lab
  - Just call the person at the welcome desk with the telephone outside
- Main room is Amphitheatre Pierre Lehmann
- Room for Machine Learning RAMP (Tuesday afternoon) should be “Salle Bleue”
  - Room next to the auditorium
- If some of you want to discuss a specific issue, we have several other rooms booked
  - Contact me
- Restrooms: next to the cafeteria

Coffee Breaks and Lunches

- Coffee breaks will be served at the cafeteria ~10h30 and ~16h00
  - See the agenda for the actual time
- Lunches will be taken at the University cantine ~12h45
  - We did not managed to get a reserved room: expect some queue
  - You have one ticket for each day in your registration package
  - Coffee will be available at LAL cafeteria at 13h30
  - Be sure to be back at 2pm: agenda is dense!

Network, Power for Laptops

- Eduroam is available and is the recommended network
  - LALPublic portal is an alternative network if you don't have an Eduroam account
- Auditorium unfortunately predates laptop era... no power under the seats
  - For security reasons, we have no right to deploy plugs
  - 4 recharging areas have been installed that can be used during breaks (at each corner of the auditorium!)

Social Dinner

- Social dinner will take place Tuesday night in Paris
  - Restaurant La Baleine (see Indico)
  - Located in Jardin des Plantes, a very nice park in Paris
  - Closest/easiest metro: Jussieu
  - Your registration package contains a map
- More info tomorrow...
