MLHEP social program

- Tonight there's the opening dinner
  - Not included in the school fee - bring cash/card
  - It's in Stadtsparkcafeet: we will walk there after the lecture
- Friday is Midsummer
  - it's the biggest holiday in Sweden
  - we plan to celebrate it in a natural park near Lund, <http://skrylle.se/midsommar/>
    - » we will take the local bus (ticket ~10 EUR), leaving at 10 am from the hostel
    - » take a packed lunch with you: maybe herring and Wasa crackers?
    - » want to go by bike (you'll have to rent one) - let me know!
    - » bring an umbrella - it is not Midsummer if it does not rain
  - if you prefer to do something on your own, check the social program page
  - it also means a lot of places are closed
    - » which means you either go to Copenhagen or Malmo or plan for food in advance (kitchens + ICA supermarket, open 7-22 on Thu or 7-13 on Fri)
- The school dinner is on Saturday
  - Included in the school fee with one drink
  - It's in Vin&Tapas bar: more info about timing later on this week

- List of places to eat in the centre of Lund on indico: <https://indico.cern.ch/event/497368/page/7426-food-and-drinks>
- Other possibly faster places, closer to here:
  - Gron&Gott <http://helsingkrona.grontogott.se/kontakt>
  - LUX library, but not 100% sure cafe is open: link to google maps, on the way towards the centre anyways
  - Sofiagrillen (some say this is the most typical Swedish food if you order the sauce with prawns): link to google maps
- Tipping in Sweden:
  - At restaurants, a service charge is included in the bill, but a small gratuity is expected for evening meals.
