Highlights

- Share and preserve all your research outputs (data, software,). These services can help you:
 - CERN Experiments: CERN Open Data, CERN Analysis Preservation
 - Long-tail of science: Zenodo
 - Your institution: Invenio v3.0
- Invenio v3 is completely rebuilt from scratch using off-the-shelf technologies to handle research data incl. integration with HEP data infrastructure (CERN EOS and XRootD).
- Zenodo is making CERN's data infrastructure and digital repository expertise available to researchers from any discipline around world.
