

What is pMp?

- pMp – Production Monitoring Platform is a web based monitoring service for various types of requests of simulated events production or data processing submitted to CMS computing infrastructure
- pMp is meant to address the needs of request managers, GEN contacts and analysts by providing:
 - key statistics
 - current/historical plots of different type of requests (MonteCarlo, data reconstruction, etc.) for analytics
 - accessibility to whole CMS collaboration