

Conference

Frédéric Laloux

works as an adviser, coach, and facilitator for corporate leaders who feel called to explore fundamentally new ways of organizing. A former associate partner with McKinsey & Co., he holds an MBA from INSEAD.

Frédéric Laloux is the author of the much talked about book "Reinventing Organizations".

His fundamental research in the field of emerging organizational models has been described as groundbreaking, brilliant, spectacular, impressive, and world-changing by some of the most respected scholars in the field of human development.

youtu.be/gcS04BI2sbk

Reinventing organizations and the Future of Work

Wednesday 4th May 2016

from 12:15 to 13:30

CERN Meyrin, Main Building, Council Chamber

Graphic created by meeting magic

For more information and access for external visitors: staff.association@cern.ch tel. 022 767 28 19