

The Unusual Life of Paolo Budinich

Fabio Pagan

Lussingrande / August 29, 2016

Paolo Budinich, born in Lussingrande on 28 August 1916

Paolo aka Corto Maltese: a sailor, an adventurer, a dreamer

Miramare, 22-26 June 1960
Symposium on elementary particle interactions

18 June 1964 / Building the ICTP

ICTP / The first stone

Budinich & Salam with Sigvard Eklund, IAEA Director General

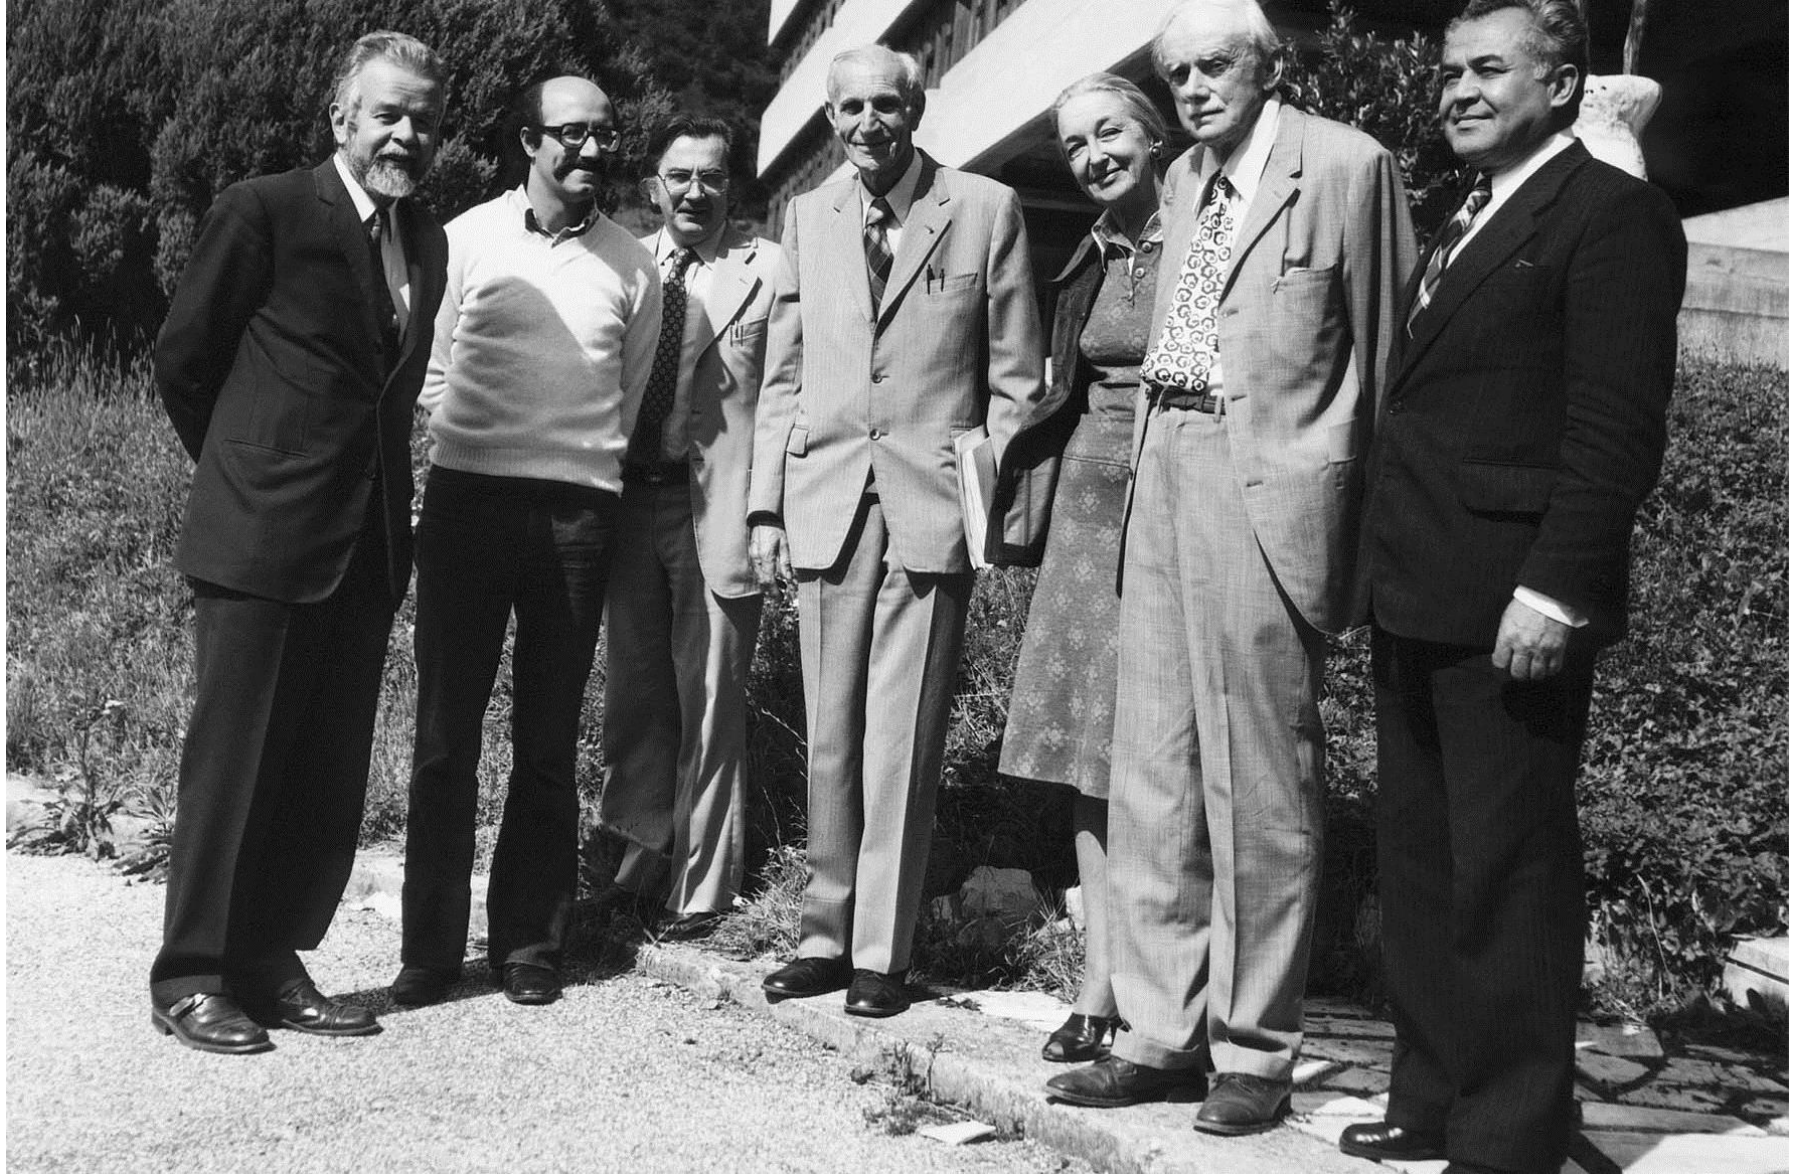

Salam & Budinich with prince Raimondo della Torre e Tasso

Budinich & Salam joking at the gala dinner of the great Symposium on contemporary physics (June 1968)

With Kastler & Dirac (and Parrinello)

A parade of four Nobel Laureates

With Giulio Andreotti

With Antonino Zichichi

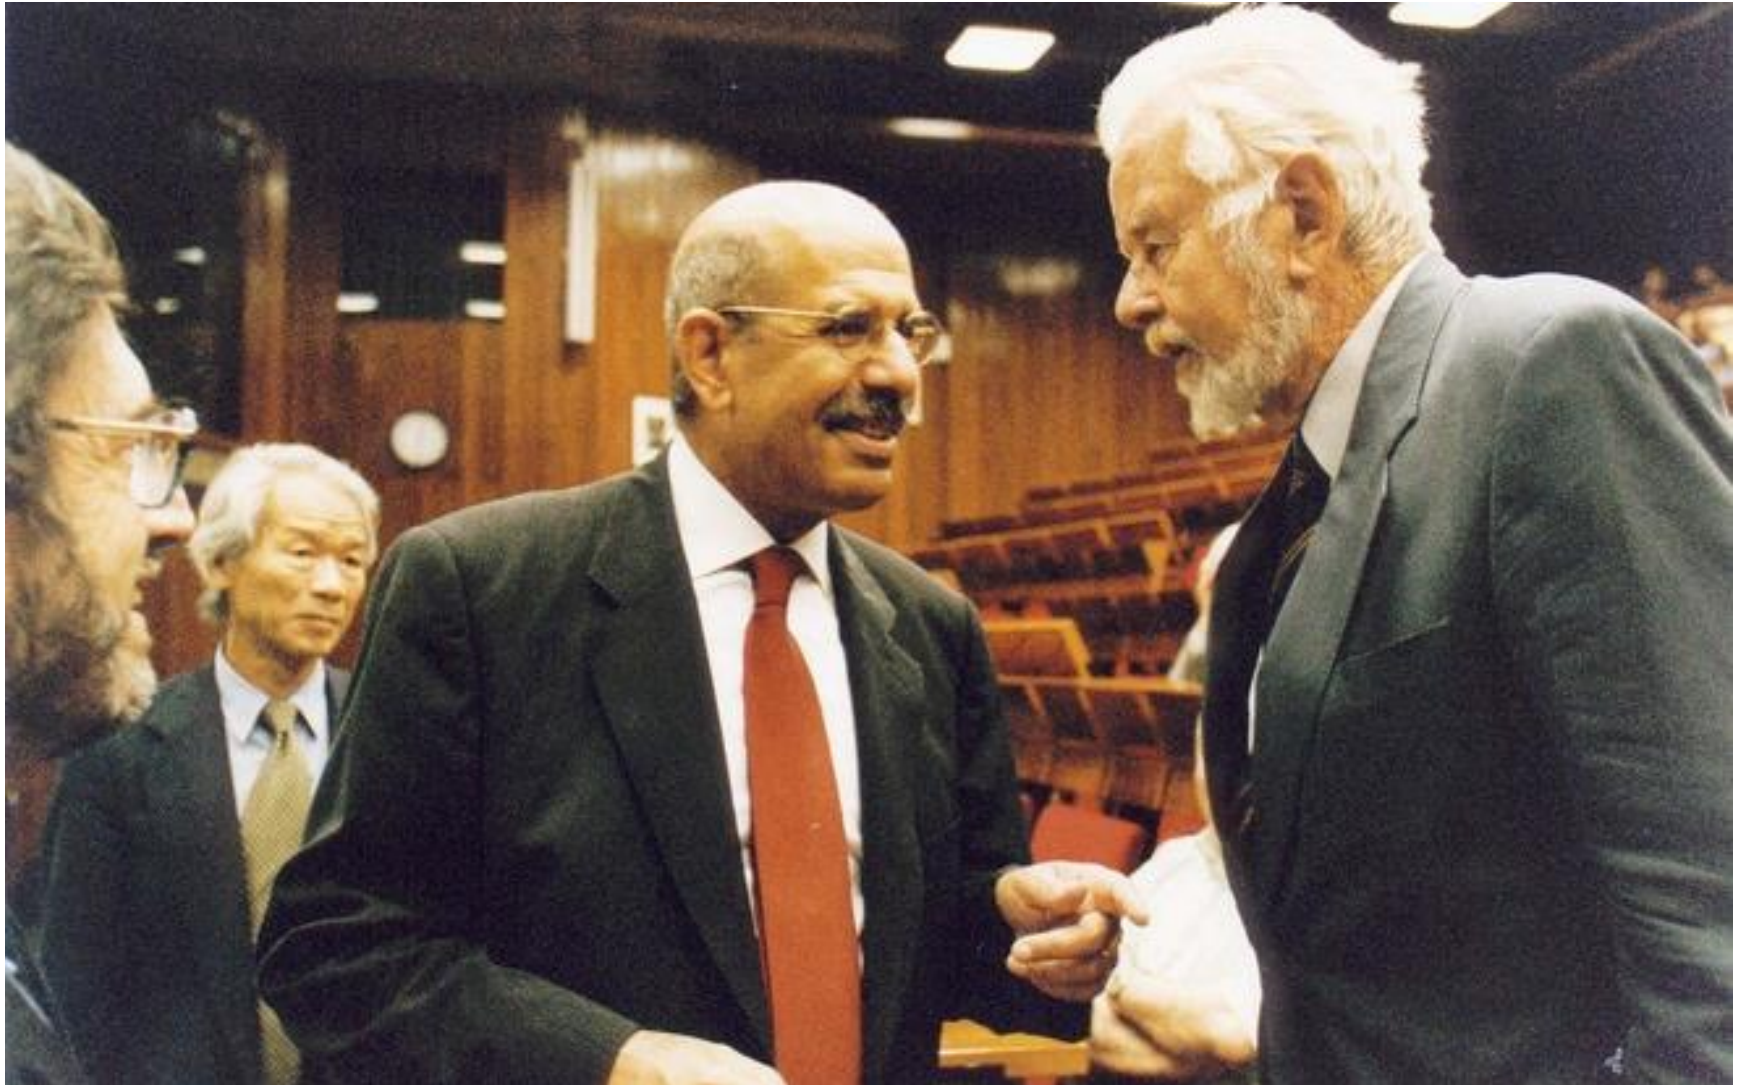

With Carlo Rubbia

With Daniele Amati (SISSA)

With Mohamed ElBaradei, IAEA Director General (3 Sept. 1999)

ICTP, 2001 / Ceremony for Paolo's 85th anniversary

A prophet with a vision

(Virasoro: “Sorry, I don’t quarrel with God”)

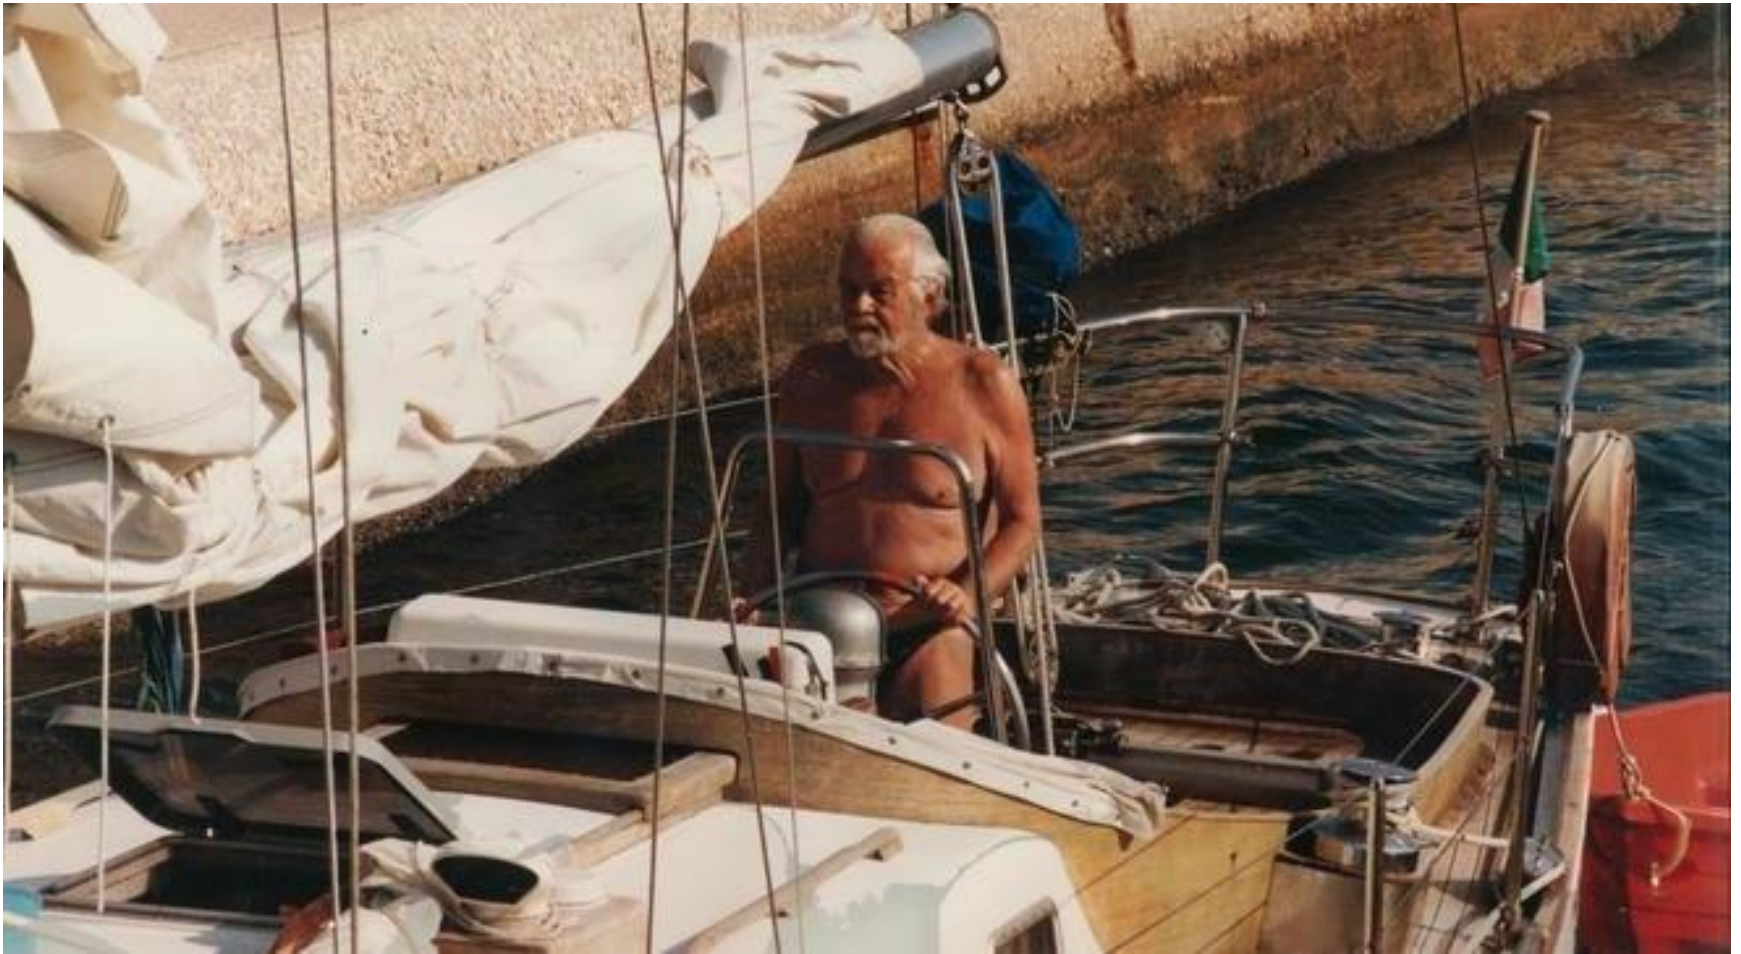

With Giorgio Napolitano, President of Italy (27 March 2008)

The Rime of the Ancient Mariner

His last bow

- Paolo Budinich passed away in Trieste
- on 14 November 2013, aged 97.

The Abdus Salam International Centre for Theoretical Physics

