

Contribution ID: 35

Type: Talk

Fluctuations and correlations in NA61

Wednesday, 14 October 2009 11:20 (30 minutes)

The NA61 program with respect of fluctuation and correlation studies in nuclear collisions will be presented. The main goal of this program is to search for the critical point of strongly interacting matter via two-dimensional scan in collision energy and system size.

Primary author: GAZDZICKI, Marek (Frankfurt University)

Presenter: GAZDZICKI, Marek (Frankfurt University)

Session Classification: Recent results from SPS and RHIC

Track Classification: New Results from SPS and RHIC