

Graviton production by two-photon processes in TeV scale gravitational interactions

In this contribution the production of gravitons via two photon fusion process is considered using the scale of the gravitational interactions around a few TeV. We focus on the expected energy of the International Linear Collider (ILC) with a center of mass energy at TeV scale. The number of events is predicted and the background from Standard Model is analyzed.

Author: MACHADO, Magno (Instituto de Fisica - UFRGS, Porto Alegre, Brazil)

Presenter: MACHADO, Magno (Instituto de Fisica - UFRGS, Porto Alegre, Brazil)

Track Classification: STARS2017