

The Power of Restlessness

Wednesday 14 December 2016 14:30 (15 minutes)

In Design Factory world, students come first, second and third. We all love pedagogical development and innovation, we are always searching for disruptive methodologies and practices, and we all love to experiment with new ways of learning. Yet, passion-based learning heavily depends on the students' inner motivation and restlessness may well be the one driver that teachers can't actually control. Rui Coutinho, the Fire Starter at Porto Design Factory explores us to see there's an extraordinary power to it.

Presenter: Mr COUTINHO, Rui (Porto Design Factory, Politecnico do Porto)

Session Classification: Open Collaboration Day
