EUROPEAN ORGANIZATION FOR NUCLEAR RESEARCH

RULES OF PROCEDURE*

(Adopted by the Council on1955, under the provisions of Article V.7 of the Convention)

Officers of the Council

Rule 1

- (a) The Council shall elect a President and two Vice-Presidents who shall hold office for one year and may be re-elected on not more than two consecutive occasions. (V.9).
- (b) The President, or the Vice-President who is acting as President, shall participate in the proceedings as such, and not as the delegate of a Member State.
- (c) The Director-General of the Organization, as Secretary of the Council, will provide a Secretariat for the Council.

Conduct of Business

Rule 2

- (a) In addition to exercising the powers conferred upon him elsewhere by these Rules, the President shall declare the opening and closing of each Session, shall direct the discussion, ensure observance of these Rules, accord or withdraw the right to speak, put questions to the vote and announce decisions. The President, subject to these Rules, shall have control of the proceedings of the Council at its meetings and over the maintenance of order thereat. He shall rule on points of order and shall, in particular, have the power to propose adjournment or closure of the debate, or adjournment or suspension of a Session.

- * - For convenience, there is also included among the procedural rules certain matter concerning the constitution and powers of the Council, which however has a bearing on its procedure.
 - Numbers in brackets refer to the relevant Articles of the Convention for the establishment of the European Organization for Nuclear Research.

- (b) If the President finds it necessary to be absent during a Session, or any part thereof, he shall appoint one of the Vice-Presidents to take the Chair. A Vice-President acting as President shall have the same powers and duties as the President.
- (c) The President shall call upon delegates in the order in which they signify their desire to speak. The President shall, however, grant priority for a point of order and such point of order shall be immediately decided upon by the President. An appeal may be made against his ruling, but any discussion on such appeal shall be limited to the delegate making the appeal and the President. If the difference of opinion is maintained the matter shall be put to the vote immediately.
- (d) The President, in the exercise of his functions, remains under the authority of the Council.

Attendance of Delegates and Advisers

Rule 3

- (a) Each Member State shall be represented by not more than two delegates who may be accompanied by advisers (V.1).
- (b) Participation as a delegate shall be subject to production of credentials issued by the Head of the State concerned, or the Head of its Government, or the competent Minister. The authority to issue credentials may be delegated in writing to a governmental organization of the Member of the Organization. A delegate shall continue to hold that position until such time as the Director-General is notified of the termination of his appointment.
- (c) The names of advisers shall be notified previously in writing to the Director-General.
- (d) If a delegate is unable to attend a sitting, he may appoint one of the advisers of his delegation as a substitute for the particular meeting concerned. The Director-General should be informed in writing beforehand.
- (e) No official of the Organization may act as a delegate or an adviser of a Member State.
- (f) The Director-General of the Organization (or, with the consent of the Council, his duly authorized representative) shall attend the Sessions of the Council. (VI.1(a)).

Attendance of Observers from non-Member States Rule 4

The Council may by a two-thirds majority of all Member States permit at its Sessions the attendance of duly accredited observers from non-Member States.

Attendance of representatives of International Organizations Rule 5

- (a) The Council shall permit the attendance at its Sessions of duly accredited observers from UNESCO (VIII).
- (b) The Council shall permit the attendance at its Sessions of duly accredited representatives or observers from other organizations with which the Organization has concluded an agreement in accordance with the provisions of Article VIII of the Convention, provided that
- (c) Where the attendance of observers from, or representatives of, another organization has not been formally provided for in an agreement concluded in accordance with Article VIII of the Convention, the Council may by a majority of two-thirds of all its members decide to permit the attendance of such observers or representatives; by the same majority it may authorize them to participate in the discussions.

Sessions to be held in public Rule 6

The Sessions of the Council shall be held in public unless otherwise decided by the Council.

Agenda Rule 7

- (a) A Provisional Agenda prepared by the Director-General in agreement with the President shall be sent to Member States not less than 21 days before each ordinary Session. Papers to be considered by the Council must be circulated in time for them to reach delegates, if possible, at least ten days before the date of the Session.
- (b) In the case of an extraordinary Session a detailed description of the business to be discussed shall be circulated with the notice convening the Session.
- (c) The Provisional Agenda for an ordinary Session shall be considered for adoption at the opening of the Session. Before adoption of the Agenda the Council may decide to add, delete, modify or combine items or re-arrange the order of business. Supplementary items with supporting papers may be added to the Agenda during the Session only if the Council so decides.

- (d) An application by any State to become a Member of the Organization shall be considered by the Council only on the expiration of at least 3 months notice given by the Director-General in writing to all Member States. (III.2(b)).
- (c) Proposals for amendment of the Convention or of the Financial Protocol shall not be considered by the Council until at least three months after the Director-General has notified all Member States of the proposed amendment (X (1)).

Minutes

Rule 8

- (a) Summarized minutes of each Session of the Council, giving the substance of the discussions, and recording the decisions reached, shall be prepared in both the official languages and shall be signed by the President.

The draft minutes shall be circulated to all delegates as soon as possible after the end of the Session. At the beginning of each Session the minutes of the previous Session, after consideration of any amendments which may have been submitted, shall be approved by the Council. Any proposed amendments of substance shall be circulated in writing before the Session.

- (b) Decisions of the Council shall normally be recorded by an appropriate summary in the minutes of the Session. At the discretion of the President or on request of a majority of delegations present, a decision shall be in the terms of a formal resolution.

Press

Communiqués

Rule 9

Press communiqués upon the proceedings of the Council or of its subordinate bodies shall be issued only by the President or with his specific authority.

Resolutions,
Amendments,
and Motions

Rule 10

- (a) Any delegate to the Council or any substitute occupying the place of a delegate may move resolutions or amendments in accordance with the following rules:
- (b) The text of any resolution or amendment shall be submitted to the President in writing. This text shall, whenever possible, be distributed before being put to the vote.

- (c) If there are several amendments to a resolution, the President shall determine the order in which they shall be discussed and put to the vote, subject to the following provisions:
 - (i) every amendment or resolution shall be put to the vote;
 - (ii) amendments may be voted on either individually or as against other amendments according to the President's decision;
 - (iii) if a resolution is amended as a result of a vote, that resolution as amended shall be put to the Council for a final vote.
- (d) A delegate may, with the consent of the seconder, withdraw a motion or an amendment which he has moved, unless an amendment to it is under discussion or has been adopted.
- (e) A motion or an amendment withdrawn by its author may be moved again by another delegate. In that case it shall be discussed and put to the vote.
- (f) In the case of motions as to procedure, no notice in writing need be handed to the President or be distributed. Motions as to procedure include the following:
 - a motion to refer a matter back, a motion to postpone consideration of a question, a motion to adjourn the sitting, a motion to adjourn a debate on a particular question or an incident, a motion that the Council proceed with another item on the agenda of the session. Such motions shall not be debated, but, on being seconded, shall immediately be put to the vote.
- (g) No resolution or amendment shall be discussed or voted upon unless and until it has been seconded.
- (h) A resolution may not be amended after it has been adopted.

Resolutions
involving Expenditure

Rule 11

No resolution involving expenditure additional to that adopted in the annual Budget shall be deemed to be approved by the Council until it has approved an estimate submitted by the Director-General for the additional expenditure involved. (Financial Protocol, Art.2).

Voting

Rule 12

- (a) Each Member State shall have one vote in the Council, subject to the provisions in the Convention as regards:

- (i) activities specified in supplementary programmes (V.(4));
 - (ii) unpaid contributions (V.(5));
 - (iii) non-deposit of Instruments of Ratification or Accession (V.11).
- (b) The Council shall normally vote by show of hands, except that any delegate may request a roll-call which shall then be taken in the French alphabetical order of the names of the Member States, beginning with a Member State whose name shall be drawn by lot by the President. The vote of each delegation participating in a roll-call shall be included in the record of the Session.
- (c) The decision of the Council on the admission of a new Member shall be by secret ballot. Council decisions may be by secret ballot in other instances upon demand of two or more delegates present. In the case of votes by secret ballot the number of abstentions shall be recorded.
- (d) In all voting by secret ballot, two tellers selected from among the delegates present, shall assist in the counting of votes.
- (e) Decisions of the Council, to be valid, shall require the voting majority specified in the relevant provision of the Convention. (The several provisions are set out in the Annex hereto).

Rule 13

The presence of delegates from a majority of Member States shall be necessary to constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Council.(V.8).

Frequency of Meetings

Rule 14

- (a) The Council shall meet at least once a year, and shall normally meet in ordinary Session twice annually. It shall in any event meet between 1 September and 30 December each year to approve the budget (V.3 and Financial Protocol 1(2)).
- (b) In an emergency, the Council shall meet in extraordinary Session at the request of the President. If required by 5 Member States, the President must instruct the Director-General to convene an extraordinary Session.

Place of Meeting

Rule 15

Sessions shall be at the seat of the Organization except when the Council shall decide to meet elsewhere (I and V.3).

Notice of Meeting

Rule 16

- (a) The Director-General of the Organization shall give Member States at least 21 days notice, in writing, of ordinary Sessions.
- (b) Except in cases of extreme urgency, of which the President shall be the judge, the Director-General shall give at least 10 days' notice, in writing, of extraordinary Sessions.

Setting up
Subordinate Bodies

Rule 17

The Council shall set up a Finance Committee, with functions as laid down in accordance with the provisions of Article 3 of the Financial Protocol to the Convention. The Council may establish such other subordinate bodies as may be necessary for the purposes of the Organization, and shall determine their terms of reference (V.10).

Official
and Working
Languages

Rule 18

The official and working languages of the Council and its subordinate bodies are English and French. At the Sessions of the Council speeches in either of the languages shall be translated into the other language. All documents laid before the Council or any of its subordinate bodies shall be presented in both languages.

Amendment
to Rules

Rule 19

Subject to the provisions of the Convention the present Rules may be amended by a decision of the Council.
