

Contribution ID: 72

Type: Talk

Creation, Tracking, and Reporting of Reliability Statistics at the APS

Monday, October 16, 2017 11:30 AM (30 minutes)

The Advanced Photon Source is a third generation light source that consistently provides beam reliability above 98% with MTBF in excess of 90 hours. This presentation will show how we use automated tools to acquire and interpret reliability data and how that data is used to prepare reports on machine reliability.

Primary author: FLOOD, Randy (ANL)

Presenter: FLOOD, Randy (ANL)

Session Classification: 02- Availability Tracking and Metrics

Track Classification: Availability Tracking and Metrics