

The Transverse Momentum Dependent Partonic Distributions (TMD-PDFs) and Fragmentation Functions (TMD-FFs) should reveal new properties of the 3-dimensional structure of nucleons and of the quark hadronization process. Many experimental data are now available, much progress has been made in their phenomenological interpretation, future facilities and experiments are being planned. A short summary of the situation is presented.