IEEE PUBLICATION TITLE (Journal, Magazine, Conference, Book):

IEEE 2015 Power Electronics Conference

COPYRIGHT TRANSFER

1. The undersigned hereby assigns to The Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers, incorporated (the "IEEE") all rights under copyright that may exist in and to the above Work, including any revised or expanded derivative works submitted to the IEEE by the undersigned based on the Work, and (b) any abstracts written or multimedia components or other enhancements accompanying the Work.

CONSENT AND RELEASE

1. In the event the undersigned makes a presentation based upon the Work as a non-member, honorary or special or in part by the IEEE, the undersigned, in consideration for being permitted to participate in the conference, hereby grants to the IEEE the unrestricted, worldwide, irrevocable permission to use, distribute, publish, license, exhibit, transmit, digitize, broadcast, reproduce and analyze, in any format or medium, whether now known or hereafter developed, (a) his/her presentation and comments at the "Presentation"; (b) any written or multimedia materials and images used in connection with his/her presentation, and (c) any recorded interviews of his/her collectively, the "Materials".

2. In accordance with the provisions granted in Section 1, the undersigned hereby grants the IEEE the unrestricted, worldwide, irrevocable right to use his/her name, picture, likeness, voice and biographical information as part of the above-identified distribution and sale of products incorporating the Work or Presentation, and release IEEE from any claim based on right of privacy or publicity.

3. The undersigned hereby warrants that the Works and Presentations (collectively, the "Materials") are original and that he/she is the author of the Materials. To the extent the Materials incorporate text passages, figures, data or other material from the works of others, the undersigned has obtained any necessary permissions. Where necessary, the undersigned has obtained the third party permissions and consents to grant the license above and has provided copies of such permissions and consents to IEEE.

☐ Please check this box if you do not wish to have your biographical information and your presentation recorded and made available on IEEE's web site.

See reverse side for Required Rights of the Editors and Author's Responsibilities.

GENERAL TERMS

1. The undersigned represents that he/she has the power and authority to make and execute this assignment.

2. The undersigned agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the IEEE from any damages or expenses that may arise in the event of a breach of any of the warranties set forth above.

3. In the event the above work is not accepted or published by the IEEE or is withdrawn by the author(s) before acceptance by the IEEE, the foregoing copyright transfer shall become null and void. Even in this case, IEEE will retain an archival copy of the manuscript.

RETIRED RIGHTS/TERMS AND CONDITIONS

General
1. Authors/employers retain all proprietary rights in any process, procedure, or article of manufacture described in the Work.
2. Authors/employers may reproduce or authorize others to reproduce the Work, material extracted therefrom, and derivative works for the author’s personal use or for company use, provided that the source and the IEEE copyright notice are indicated, the copies are not used in any way that implies IEEE endorsement of a product or service of any employer, and the copies themselves are not offered for sale.
3. In the case of a Work performed under a U.S. Government contract or grant, the IEEE recognizes that the U.S. Government has royalty-free permission to reproduce all or portions of the Work, and to authorize others to do so, for official U.S. Government purposes only, if the contract/grant so requires.
4. Although authors are permitted to reuse all or portions of the Work in other works, this does not include granting third-party requests for repeating, republishing, or other types of re-use. The IEEE Intellectual Property Rights Office must handle all such third-party requests.
5. Authors whose work was performed under a grant from a government funding agency are free to freely allow any deposit mandate from that funding agency.

Author Online Use
6. Personal Servers. Authors and/or their employers shall have the right to post the accepted version of IEEE-copyrighted articles on their own personal servers or the servers of their institutions or employers without permission from IEEE, provided that the posted version includes a prominently displayed IEEE copyright notice and, when published, a full citation to the original IEEE publication, including a link to the article abstract in IEEE Xplore. Authors shall post the final, published versions of their papers.
7. Classrooms or Internal Training Use. An author is expressly permitted to post any portion of the accepted version of his/her own IEEE-copyrighted articles on the author’s personal website or the servers of the author’s institution or company in connection with the author’s teaching, training, or work responsibilities, provided that the appropriate copyright, credits, and usage notices appear prominently with the posted material. Examples of permitted uses are lecture materials, course packs, e-resentations, conference presentations, or in-house training courses.
8. Electronic Preprints. Before submitting an article to an IEEE publication, authors frequently post their manuscripts in their own web site, their employer’s site, or to another server that involves constructive comment from colleagues. Upon submission of an article to IEEE, the author is required to transfer copyright to the article to IEEE, and the author must upload any previously posted versions of the article with a prominently displayed IEEE copyright notice. Upon publication of an article by the IEEE, the author must replace any previously posted electronic versions of the article with either (1) the final citation to the IEEE work with a Digital Object Identifier (DOI) or link to the article abstract in IEEE Xplore, or (2) the accepted version only (not the IEEE-published version), including the IEEE copyright notice and full citation, with a link to the final, published article in IEEE Xplore.

INFORMATION FOR AUTHORS

Author Responsibilities
The IEEE distributes its technical publications throughout the world and wants to ensure that the material submitted to its publications is properly available to the readership of these publications. Authors must ensure that their Work meets the requirements as stated in section 4.2.1 of the IEEE P1500 Operations Manual, including provisions covering originality, authorship, author responsibilities, and author misconduct. More information on IEEE’s publishing policies may be found at http://www.ieee.org/publications_standards/publications/rights/authorshipguidelines.html. Authors are advised especially of IEEE P1500 Operations Manual sections 4.2.1.14 and 4.2.1.25: “It is the responsibility of the author, not the IEEE, to determine whether disclosure of this material requires the prior consent of other parties and, if so, to obtain it.” Authors are also advised of IEEE P1500 Operations Manual section 4.1.1.18: “Statements and opinions given in work published by the IEEE are the expression of the author.”

Author/Employer Rights
If you are employed and prepare the Work on a subject within the scope of your employment, the copyright in the Work belongs to your employer as a work-for-hire. In that case, the IEEE assumes that when you sign this Form, you are authorized to do so by your employer and that your employer has consented to the transfer of copyright, the representation and warranty of publication rights, and to all other terms and conditions of this Form. If such authorization and consent has not been given to you, an authorized representative of your employer should sign this Form as the Author.

IEEE Copyright Ownership
It is the formal policy of the IEEE to own the copyrights to all copyrightable material in its technical publications and to the individual contributions contained therein, in order to protect the interests of the IEEE, its authors and their employers, and, at the same time, to facilitate the appropriate re-use of material in print, microform, and electronic media. It also abstracts and may translate its publications, and articles contained therein, for inclusion in various compendiums, collective works, databases and similar publications.

THIS FORM MUST ACCOMPANY THE SUBMISSION OF THE AUTHOR’S MANUSCRIPT.

Questions about the submission of the form or manuscript must be sent to the publication’s editor.
