

Dark matter from dark gauge groups

Thursday 20 April 2017 11:51 (23 minutes)

Dark gauge groups, coupled to the Standard Model via the Higgs portal, can provide WIMP dark matter in a simple and appealing way. After reviewing the origin of dark matter stability in this framework, I discuss different mechanisms that lead to a natural suppression of direct detection rates below present-day limits, without a fine-tuning of parameters.

Author: GROSS, Christian

Presenter: GROSS, Christian

Session Classification: Dark matter